Cartoonist
George Price has long been our favorite cartoonist. Comic art may well be the product of a mental disorder, a kind of juggling of the nerves, that any competent psychiatrist ought to be able to cure in three sessions on the couch. If, by any black, unlucky chance, some sorcerer did succeed in curing George Price, it would be sad magic. Let Price put up with his nightmares that the rest of us may be allowed to enjoy the after-effects for the "color". In this issue, we call upon Mr. Price.

We could have released any number of issues since our Boston convention of last August. We'll not bore you with any of the very valid reasons why we didn't; let's pick it up from here and, along with our best wishes to you and yours for a wonderful 1965, may we promise you a non-stop marathon on issues between now and the time we meet again.

*"Vending
without a license—
and get over

We're off for another year of issues, but not without first letting you in on the big news: we'll meet in Hawaii in August of '65 - Hawaii - where men make passes at gals who wear grasses.....This is being written even as the doors of Boston's Somerset are not yet fully closed behind our last departing conventioners. Modest experience in this chair has taught us that it is folly to wait for convention copy before putting the first issue of a new volume to bed. So start "Vol. XVIII, No. 1" we do, just as fast as we can. Besides, we find no rule which ordains that the first past convention issue must be devoted to the "convention story". We plan to tell you some of the story now and some of the story in subsequent issues. That you'll forgive our piece-meal approach, we are bold enough to assume.....It was good seeing BOB GERRY (K21 '43-'46) of 51 Nixon, Dorchester, Mass. at another convention. Sorry you couldn't bring Phyllis, Bob. Bob and Phyl have 2, Patti Ann and Kevin. Bob wants more Taro Leaf issues. We'll try, little man, we'll try.

Life Member, MIKE and Alice MOCHAK (D19) tripped in from 1143 Walnut, Springdale, Pa. with their 2 children for the Boston Convention, our 17th, we're pleased to note. The Convention Program cover carried the welcoming message: "The veterans - of the division which has "known" Hawaii, Australia, Goodenough, Hollandia, Biak, Leyte, Mindoro, Luzon, Corregidor, Mindanao, Shikoko, Honshu, Kyushu, Korea, Germany and Lebanon - of the division which has never "come home" - who have reassembled from time to time, as at Baltimore in '48, New York in '49, Chicago in '50, Detroit in '51, Columbus in '52, St. Louis in '53, Washington in '54, San Francisco in '54, Garmisch in '55, New York in '55 and '56, Chicago in '57 and '58, Philadelphia in '59, Atlantic City in '60, Louisville in '61, Chicago in '62, and Louisville in '63 - joyously convene once again at the Somerset, Boston, Massachusetts, August 14, 15, 16, 1964 to plan for the completion of the full circle: Hawaii in August of 1965."

Back into our fold, we proudly announce, comes Dr. JOHN R. KERNODLE (34th 12/44-9/45). He and Esther have 2, John Jr. and Ann. Doc can be reached at Kernodle Clinic, Inc., Burlington, N.C. As Ass't. regimental surgeon, Doc was cited for gallantry at Zig Zag Pass, Luzon. At 1915 of Feb. 5, '45, an artillery barrage fell on the edge of the 3rd Bn., 34th perimeter causing several casualties. One soldier was seriously wounded in the leg, and due to darkness and the terrain it was impossible to evacuate him. Kernodle, the battalion surgeon, left his foxhole, and by crawling and feeling, made his way in the dark to the place where the soldier was lying. He treated the soldier and remained with him throughout the night Kernodle could not dig in as the noise would give our position away to the enemy, so he remained on top of the ground beside the soldier without protection from rifle, mortar, or artillery fire until the soldier was evacuated. Had he not gone to treat the wounded soldier, he would have died as the result of the wound. Glad you've rejoined, Johnnie; we're proud of you.

One of the things wrong with the younger generation is that a lot of us don't belong to it anymore.

At the table in the front, Boston conventioners all - the Peyton and Peters children, Jeannette Peters, WALT J. PETERS, (19th '42-'45) and his buddy, JOE PEYTON, also of Sv. Co., 19th, grand and lovable Margaret Peyton, another of the Peyton family, MIKE MOCHAK (D19th), and Mrs. Alice Mochak of 1143 Walnut, Springdale, Pa. Walt Peters brought Jeannette and Jane, John and Jennifer all the way from Summerfield, Kansas. Joe brought Maggie and "the 4", Pat, Tom, Jim and Kathy, up from 1405 Belmore, Lutherville, Md.

COURAGE

President Kennedy was a well-known collector of souvenirs. Mrs. Lincoln, for ten years his secretary, says he particularly cherished a placque presented by Vice Admiral Hyman G. Rickover, reading:

"Oh God, Thy sea is so great
And my boat is so small."

Are there not times when we too feel that the sea of life is too great and too rough for the small boat of our morale? When this happens we can boost our morale by forgetting for a moment our own troubles and doing something for others.

I am sure you have heard the following quotation many times. The following version I have copied directly from the hand-written draft of President Kennedy's inaugural address which is among the papers and memories now on a nationwide tour and eventually to be housed in the Kennedy Library at Harvard.

"Ask not what your country is going to do for you - ask what you can do for your country - my fellow citizens of the world - ask not what America or others will do for you - but rather what you yourself can do for freedom. Rather ask of us - the same high standard of sacrifice and strength of heart and will that we need from you".

Fr. Chris J. Berlo, C.P.

This year's reunion has promises of new features, bargain prices, and new and different side attractions.

The ARTHUR S. HORNBECK's (A 52F '30-'50) came to Boston from 1503 Seymour Ave., Utica TED GEELHOED (1-19th '51) writes from 60 N. 8th, Hawthorne, N.J. Ted, active in the VFW, is getting all worked up over the prayer-in-school ban. Ted, we'd carry the torch for you, if we could - but somebody once ordained "Nothing controversial"... ..WILLIAM H. JOHNSON (G19th '53-'54) who with Christine are the parents of Barbara, Sandra and Lisa, made the reunion from 471 Cottage Rd., S. Portland, Maine..... "You'll be glad to know that I only have the mumps", said Tom infectiously.

LARRY and Jean HARRIS (F 5th RCT, 24th Sig. '51) came on from 101 58th Place, Clarendon Hills, Ill. for our shindig. They have 2: Belinda, 2  $\frac{1}{2}$ , and Carol, 1..... Here's a new address for DALLAS DICK (A,B,C & Sv. 19th - '35-'45)-1701 Bridge St., New Cumberland, Pa. Dallas is with the state in the Dept/Property, Bureau of Admin. Serv. at the capitol in Harrisburg....."Did you actually brew 6 cups of tea with one bag?" asked Tom weakly..... JAMES A. McGAFFIGAN (19th - '43-'45) and Rita, who hang their hats at 22 Emerson, Needham, Mass. enjoyed themselves at the banquet. Hats off to those wonderful folks for their generous contribution of gifts to our "Christmas in August" party-within-a-party.

The present plans call for chartering a plane leaving NYC on Sat., Aug. 7, 1965, with pickup stops at Chicago and San Francisco. The all inclusive round trip price will be under $400.00 per passenger. Plane chartering is a funny kind of business and we've got to fill the plane - with 172 passengers - if we're going to obtain this price. We'll fill you in on the details just as fast as the news develops.....Definition of a historical novel: one with a shapely wench on the jacket, and no jacket on the shapely wench.....

WALTER and Hazel BENNETT (24th QM) from Westview, Hazardville, Conn., were made happy in Boston. Walt won the $100.00 first prize raffled off at the banquet. It was the highlight of the "Christmas in August" event, the awarding of over 200 individually wrapped gift items to lucky ticket holders. Tickets went for 10¢ a chance and we netted $232.00 in ticket sales. The gifts represented a total value of over $1000.00. Here are some of the gifts, as displayed adjacent the registration desk, prior to the Saturday night meal. The GILNERS, SAM and Sue, are identifiable in the center. They held the registration fort nobly well - fidelity is a middle name for the Gilners.

We avoid stereotyped lists of names in our copy so we won't bore you with one of ED HENRY's '64 Convention Committee. All who served did yeoman service. Elsewhere, here and there, we'll tell you who they were. Each of us who attended the Somerset party are grateful to them.

To get the Boston convention properly engineered took a bit of "early" financing. Contributors to the convention committee fund during the spring and early summer planning phase were BILL VERBECK, BOB WESTON, STAN KAISER, BILL MULDOON, URB THROM, WARREN McNAMARA, PAUL HARTLEY, PHIL FARRELL, WALT BENNETT, KEN ROSS, JIM McGAFFIGAN, FRANK FULTON, BOB GERRY, ED HENRY, BENOIT BLAIS, BILL SANDERSON, JIM RUSSELL, ERNIE VIENEAU, FR. CHRIS BERLO and LAFE COCHRAN. If we have missed any, our apologies.....Vacations International of Honolulu are making all arrangements in the Islands to handle our group. All transportation, greetings, and other activities will be most carefully planned in advance. They'll help us plan our sight-seeing - and there's a lot of exciting sight-seeing in Hawaii - and answer all of our questions about shopping, restaurants, night clubbing and other activities. Our DC8-F Fan Jet scheduled by Trans International Airlines (a division of Studebaker Corporation) is the newest and fastest Douglas Jetliner flying. We can take that plane with the assurance that we are in the hands of the most experienced airline in jet charter travel.... an airline that for 17 years and for many millions of passenger miles has maintained a perfect safety record, an airline that operates completely under the authority of applicable Federal Agencies. So settle back, relax and enjoy complimentary champagne cocktails before the stewardess serves dinner aboard.

TOM GRADY (H21 '42-'45) came to our clambake from 182 Barker, Hartford, Conn.....

These columns are for "thinking out loud" re Assoc. problems. And we have 'em. Having lost a dedicated Sec'y.-Treas. in ED HENRY, be warned that within a few issues, we'll be losing a Sec'y.-Treas.-Editor. The work load is simply more than one man can handle, if he is also to meet the expectations of life in earning his daily bread. And while speaking of the staff of life, we continue to boil at the very outrageousness of the suggestion that any one of our more active or enthusiastic members might be making a fast buck through our operations or any phase thereof. We happen to know that as to some 10 or 12 of our more obvious busy bees, this Assoc., far from representing an opportunity to catch a bill or two "sticking to the underside of the table", represents only an excuse for throwing additional money (way beyond the yearly dues) into the pot to keep the chowder simmering. The sizeable contributions of a few New Englanders, in the spring and early summer of this year, made in the effort to get the Convention balloon off the ground, is a case in point. The "Christmas in August" feature of our Boston get-together is another. This last, by the bye, went to over $1000.00 - yes $1000.00 - in contributions. But to get back to what we started out to say: The succession of proper new officers, with new blood, is vital to this club, if it is to survive. Consider the message as writ upon the wall. Let him, who has the urge and desire - and drive - to take over, speak out now. We need you.

EARL and ALICE BRIDWELL (H19 '31-'55) from 134 S. 2nd., Beech Grove, Ind., seemed to enjoy their long Boston weekend. Earl says that the annual business meeting just wasn't up to par. Prexy BILL VERBECK was just too much the master of the situation to allow the usual pandemonium. So take it from there: for our money, Bill, by his very efficiency, spoiled the show. No one got mad at anyone else, no one shouted, no one stomped out: when it was over, everyone shook his head and asked "Wot happened?"

ALBERT (sans Pat) SELTSAM (34th '45-'45) made Boston from Danville, Ky. We missed you, Pat.....A trip through a medical dictionary is as invigorating as a Hawaiian vacation, because you suddenly realize that there are 10000 diseases that you might have, but don't. For instance, rejoice that you are not a victim of crocodile tears syndrome. This is a tendency to weep while eating....Anarithmia is an inability to add correctly. One who can't afford to suffer with this one is BRUCE LUZADER (Cn 19th '42-'46) of 216 S. Spring, Bucyrus, Ohio. Bruce manages a supermarket. He and Nina have 2 kiddos - one 10, one 4..... There's a very fetching ailment called graphophobia - a fear of writing too much. One who doesn't suffer therefrom is ALBERT O. DUBREVIL (F 21st '41-'45) of 79 Mill, New Bedford, Mass. who sends his copy of our paper to JOSEPH H. BASS, same outfit, at

Al and Lillian made it to our Boston Convention. Al wonders if Bobby Baker ever bought retail..... We need your help in bringing in new members.

Here is a word quiz that will leave you ill-humored and no wiser than before. Find at least 5 words which, printed in capitals, read the same forward, backward, and in the mirror. Why not "TOOT", "WOW", "MOM", "TOT", "OTTO"?

Life member CHET ANDREZAK (Cn. 21 '43-'45) from 3225 N. Natchez, Chicago, was in the middle of all convention activities proving that buffonery, despite its surface broadness, is an art requiring skill, timing and a mastery of pantomime. Chet has it. Gloria was missed, Chet.....We have mentioned $1318.00 as Taro Leaf expense for last year. This covered 10 issues, more than in any other year, with 1200 copies per issue. 500 to the membership and 700 to prospects. The quest for new members is never ending.... Today, interest on the national debt amounts to nearly 11 billion dollars a year, or 3 times as much as the government spent annually for all purposes during the years 1926 to 1930. There is curiously little concern about this.

We were tickled pink to see TOM BAKEWELL (724 Ord '43-'45) of 494 Mountain Rd., West Hartford, Conn., in Boston. It had been a long time. Polly regretfully stayed home to mind the 4 Bakewell children. Tom with his usual dry humor was overheard to be telling a couple of the boys: "Forbidden fruit is responsible for many a bad jam"... We are tripling in brass this year between the editing and secretarial and banking work, so if we use these columns to say our "Thank you" to such as LEON D. SWEM (34th '43-'45) of Rt. 3, Carthage, N.Y., who sends in his dues, we know you'll understand. Leon, we missed you and Alice in Boston.

LAFE COCHRAN (24th QM '41-'45) of Box 11, Livermore Falls, Me. was so busy meeting his committee responsibilities during the Boston festivities that he hardly had time to enjoy the sheer bedlam. We missed your not bringing Doris, Lafayette, but you were there..... CHARLES M. BARBER (19th '44-'46) and Angie, his wife, have Charles 13, Cathy 12, Michael 10, and Dan 8. Charles is an electrician and hangs his hat at 1621 N. Wolfe, Springfield, Ill. He was radio op w/19th Hq. and still is a ham - call W9JYF. Other hams in the 24th send him messages via interstate SSB net on 3985kc - He still fondly remembers his old CW call letters from the 24th CW net. The 19th was M28 and T6D. How about picking up a few members for us, Charlie, via this route? He'll be happy to hear from any of the old brass pounders....."All my friendth are out of town this weekend", said Tom fruitlessly.

DICK GOINY (E21st) made Boston, coming in from 3619 W 64th, Chicago, Ill.....We couldn't go to press without acknowledging our gratitude to outgoing Prexy WILLIAM J. VERBECK (21st and Div. Hq. '44-'45) for a wonderfully ambitious and vitalizing tour of office. And we tried, in small degree, to demonstrate that gratitude with a presentation of the two volume work, "West Point Atlas of American Wars" which was suitably inscribed to "The Bravest of the Brave from each and every member of the 24th Inf.Div. Assoc.". We went further and added the signature of each and every member. This called for a little forgery, but as was explained to Bill, within the Association are some of the best forgers in the business. The presentation brought a lump to Bill's already-aching throat.

ROBERT T. WESTON (5th Inf.) of 26 Park St., Portland, Maine was the Association's honored guest at the Beantown fun. Bob is the long-time Sec'y. of the 5th U.S. Inf. Regt. Assn. with which we have such warm ties through the history made in Korea when the 5th RCT supported us. Bob, a 25 year career man in the Army, in addition to service in the 5th, saw service at one time in the 35th at Scofield and he reports that "I have many, many pleasant memories of my island service on Oahu". Bob writes profuse thanks to all of us who helped to make his Boston stay so enjoyable. He thanks us for himself and for the 5th Assn., and we reply: "The pleasure was all ours". This looks like the start of a warm friendship between the two Assns. Bob tells us that their Assn. was formed in '48 with purposes corresponding to ours. Some of their members have service dating back to '98 and '00: that's going back, Bob. They likewise publish a paper and we're on their mailing list, so we'll be stealing from it from time to time. More than that, they meet monthly in Portland, Me. - on the 2nd Sunday of each month, in case you're in the area. Of their annual meeting and reunion, we report elsewhere in this issue. Thanks for your good letters, Bob; keep them coming.

BEN and Alice GOVAN (34th '43-'45) from 231 Jefferson, South Braintree, Mass., were convention attenders this year....New England Hospitality Nite, Thursday, 13 Aug., saw our Marching and Chowder Society get its 17th Convention officially underway. It was a gala opening event, thanks to the families of BILL SANDERSON (19th), STANLEY C. KAISER (Div. Arty), and FR. CHRISTOPHER J. BERLO (19th) and if we slight any of the others who contributed to that sumptuous spread, we beg forgiveness. Mention, but only in passing, is given to the fact that fisticuffs started to fly at one point in the evening's proceedings, with an understandably dampening effect upon the gaiety of it all. But it all ended about as quickly as it started with stalwarts JAMES M. O'DONNELL (G-21st) and WILLIAM J. MULDOON (19th) entering the middle of the fray, and, as seems to be par for such a course, suffering the worst of the blows. Happily we report that it amounted to naught and it was the consensus that it could hardly be rated as "a good fight" so as not to blemish a record of 17 conventions "without an incident", a record of which we each are mighty proud.

Enjoying all the raucous reunion slapstick and oafish cackles were BOB and Josephine ANDRE (724 Ord & 63 FA '44-'45) all the way over from 1864 Maple, DesPlaines, Ill..... ED HENRY's treasurer's yearly report for 8/15/63 - 8/15/64 showed for receipts: $1355.00 from dues, $239.20 from donations, and $26.12 from dividends on our Revere Fund holdings. This represents a total of $1620.32 taken in during the year which when added to $276.05 in the bank at the beginning of the period brings the total to $1896.37. As to expenses, $1318.00 went to the printing and mailing of the Taro Leaf, $76.02 went to postage for the secretary, $75.00 went to the floral piece for the MacArthur funeral and the balance went to stationery and other minor expenses. In all, we spent $1603.25 so that we ended the year with a balance of $293.12.

If you are not an Association member and are receiving this copy, charge it up to our good nature and a bona fide desire to see you join us as a member.

"You misunderstood me. I said he could lick any man in the house."
