The Division History covering 1941-1979 will be released before the Lexington Convention in August of '79. The History will be available only to those Association members who pay $20.00 per copy.

JOHNNY FEDOCK, (K 19 '40-'44) of Box 292, Rt. 3, Shippensburg, Pa., recovering nicely from a heart attack. Take care of him, Adelaide. Johnny tells us that Ann Miller who danced through those musical films in the '40's and '50's married and divorced 3 Texas oil millionaires. Now, that's what Johnny calls a hat trick.

VIC SMOLA, (C 3rd Eng. '42-'45), of R6, Box 218, Chippewa Falls, Wis., recovering nicely from a recent illness. Is commander of his DAV district covering N.W. Wisconsin so he's busy.

HOWARD E. STULL, (3rd Bn 5th RCT 8/51-7/52), of 4440 10th Ave. N., St. Petersburg, Fla., is looking for men he served with. Is particularly anxious to find Sgt. RAYMOND MOYER, one of our 477,000 non-members.

Past Prexy ED HENRY tells us that this ad recently appeared in his Attleboro paper:

"FOR SALE - Used life raft.
In fair condition."

In NYC, Watergater John Ehrlichman, 53, recently out of the slammer, married a bubbly 30 year old divorcee, Christy Peacock McLaurine. Wonder how that'll "wash in Peoria".

So nice to hear from ED FARMER (H, D, A21st, Regt S-3 '36-'45). He'd been missing for years. Ed and Carolyn are at 3450 Ramstad, San Jose, Calif. Lysa is now 19 and Susan is 17.

Our man: Life Member 144, CLARK BACCAY, in Rizal in the P.I., sends along a $20 bill with words, "I wish I could contribute something for the new book but cannot find worthwhile for myself but the eagerness and enthusiasm to get a copy of this wonderful book for my collection. Herewith is my Twenty Dollars with a Salute to the Editor of this book."

Good friend, Brig.Gen. BILL NAYLOR, of W.Hartford, CT., an old 43rd Div. man, saw our item on HENRY "Black Magic" MUCCI and responded thus: "Dear Ken - Try 25 North Bulkley Ave., Westport, CT. Tel. 203-259-9946. Henry led the task force that freed Cabantuan. It was a well planned and well executed operation, thanks to Henry. I recall that he went on to command a regiment in the 6th Div. and it was with our regiment in the freeing of Clark Field. Henry resigned from the Army after the war and ran once for political office in Connecticut. He was a native of Bridgeport. I never saw him again after the Clark Field episode. Your article brought him to mind again. I thought he was a tremendous chap". Thanks Bill. We agree on his being "tremendous".

JOE CENGA, of Chelsea, Mass., and CHARLIE LANG, of Carson, Calif., saw service together in Pupakea Heights on Oahu in '41. That's Joe on the left. At Savannah II, 37 years later, they were reunited. Joe's in insurance (26 years); Charlie's in the tending of wooden counters over which ales, brews, liquors, whiskies and the like are passed (30 years). 'Twas great seeing these old buddies meet again after 10 these many years.

JOHNNIE BAGLAMA has remarried and has been at 369 Dubya, Glen Burnie, Md., for last 5 years. Johnny tells us that Burt Reynolds is 42 but says he feels 22 - so he's going to change his age. Says it's legal in Calif. Everything seems to be legal in Calif.

URB THROM, (24 Med, 21st, 34th, 3rd Eng., Div.Arty, and Div.Hq. '44-'47) is still serving the Army. Now retired, he's Director of Health Services at Rocky Mountain Arsenal, Denver.

Coming. NBC's 6-hour TV version of "From Here to Eternity". It'll include the beach scene - in the nude. How times have changed.

Variety doesn't seem impressed with royalty. They carried an item on the wedding of Princess Caroline of Monaco, identifying her as "the daughter of former film actress, Grace Kelly, and casino operator, Ranier Grimaldi".

PSST!!! French President Giscard d'Estaing's favorite breakfast is strips of bacon with marmalade spread on top. Bon Appetit!!

ALBERT DELAY, of Box 154, Tilden, Ill., is anxious to locate VIRGIL EASTERDAY. Any ideas? Al has a definition for hookers who hang around outside a disco. "Call them 'a flourish of strumpets', or 'An anthology of pros.'" Either one is a far cry from "Ladies of the evening".

RECONNAISSANCE BOYS
the Eyes and the Ears

We are the boys who prowl at night,
And prowl through the heat of day.
Men with the will of iron might,
Rolling with a will and a way.

Men with the eyes and ears of all,
Ever guiding the lads behind,
Sons of the hills and jungle call,
Following all trails as they wind.

Into the sun we'll be coming,
Through the dark of night we crawl,
And it's us you'll hear a-drumming
Somewhere against the mountain wall.

We are the boys who come and go,
Not the rear, or near, but the front,
The rover's song is all we know,
As we roll along in the hunt.

Down from the hills we're streaming,
Out through the dusk into the dawn,
Our hearts aflame with our dreaming,
Riding through the night into morn.

When you hear our wagons grinding,
Hold on to that iron clad hat,
Flashes of guns will be blinding,
And it's us they will be blazing at.

We are the boys who laugh in mirth,
And ride in the sweat of the sun,
Flirting with death, daring its birth,
And rolling 'till all of it's won.

When you hear the footsteps falling,
It might have been us moving forth;
The hills and jungles are calling
Eyes and Ears of the Twenty Fourth.

This is the kind of publicity we've been talking about. It pulls. "Bud" COLLETTE managed to get this effective item included in a local paper.

Collette To Coordinate History of 24th Inf.
Div. U.S.A.

C.A. "Bud" Collette Commander of Tujunga Chapter #41 has been named coordinator for this area in compiling history of the 24th Infantry Division.

The 24th division was formed in Hawaii just before Pearl Harbor, and saw action in New Guinea and the Philippines during World War-2. It did occupation duty in Japan and it was the first Army Division to be committed to action in the Korean War. The 24th was later transferred to Germany. Thus far the first 30 years of its history, the 24th Division was never here in the continental U.S. Only recently was it located in Fort Stewart, Georgia.

"We are looking for anyone who ever served in the 24th Inf. Div who has a story, sad or funny and pictures to be used in the new 24th Inf. Div. History Book" (all pictures will be returned) The stories or autobiographies are to be sent to: C.A. "Bud" Collette, 3825 Franklin St. La Crescenta, Calif. 91214.

Commander Collette, a former Infantry Sergeant served 11 months in Korea with the 24th Inf. Div. 5th R.C.T. 3rd Bn. in 1951-52.

Left to right: LOWELL LINDH of Corvallis, Oregon and C.A. "Bud" COLLETTE of LaCrescenta, Calif. who were both in the Commo. Platoon, Hq.Co. 3rd. Bn. 5th R.C.T. 1951-52. This picture was taken in July 1972. They hadn't seen each other in 20 years.

It's LEO and Josephine McDONNELL, (24th QM '53-'55), of 1715 Prospect, Scranton, Pa. at last May's mini-reunion in Carlisle. He was the hot dog in working an air lift of supplies to the entrapped 5th RCT and 555th FA Bn which allowed them to fight their way out.

"A Giant in our Times

MacArthur Square Dedicated

Mrs. MacArthur being escorted to the flag pole by General Bernard Rogers.

EARL J. COOPER advises us that in September a MacArthur Square complex was dedicated in Norfolk.

The Memorial, where MacArthur's body is interred, was to have been dedicated in 1964, but the death of the general postponed the plans. Since that time, the MacArthur Memorial Foundation has added three new buildings. More than three million people have visited the Memorial in the past 14 years.

Located at Plume and Bank Streets, the complex includes a theater, a museum, a gift shop and an administrative building. Work on a Center for East Asian Studies will begin in a few months. The latter will contain papers on MacArthur's assault at Inchon, Korea, 28 years ago.

Speaking during the ceremonies, newscaster Lowell Thomas called General Douglas MacArthur "one of the greatest giants to ever walk the earth." "Of all the giants of our times, there has been none greater than General Douglas MacArthur," he said.

Also speaking at the dedication ceremony was retired Gen. Lemuel Shepherd, former commandant of the Marine Corps. Gen. Shepherd commanded the Marine battalion that made the Inchon landing.

MacArthur's widow helped raise an American flag to dedicate the square, then briefly thanked the crowd for attending. "It is very difficult for me to express my deep appreciation for the honor that has been shown my general here today," she said.

Things we're tired of reading about Betty Ford and her problems with alcohol....

Progress report on that Division History. God willing, we may bring the finished production to Lexington in August. Meantime, down at the ranch, 460 members have contributed a total of $11,952.57 for its publication. We take that as an indication that some 575 of you don't care. Remember, as they say down at the laundry, no tickee - no shirtee. No contribution, no book.

CLAXON SOUNDS HIS CLAXON

Hey, Good Buddies:

Indian Summer here; and I'm part indian.

Beautiful country. Couldn't be better. Except like next August when the troops and reserves of the Great 24th Division descend on our fair land and make it even finer.

We'll all be home for the holidays but don't worry none, I guarantee you that we'll have plenty of good spirit left for the August convention.

The latch string is out always at Claxon's Corner 24* hours a day.

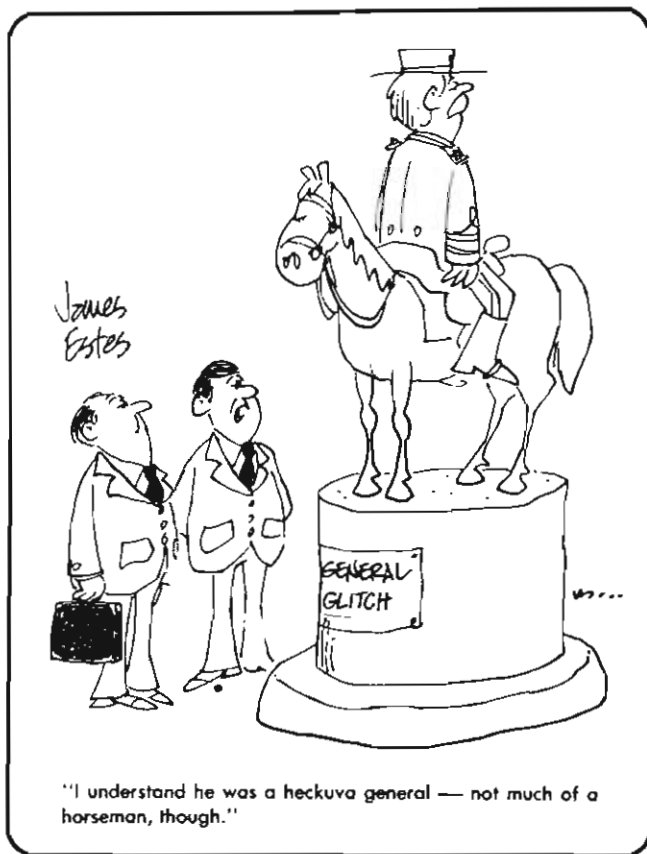

Sincerely,

Roscoe Claxon
Convention Chairman

* "24" Do you get it? Subtle, eh?

Meet ERNIE and Marie HOLLAR, (Hq.Co., Div.Hq. '44-'45), of RR 2, Milford, Ind. The folks were at Cypress Gardens for this one. Pearls of wisdom flow from Ernie's lips when he says: "Let us pray that hens never come to know what brick-layers get for laying bricks".

FRANK H. TROUTMAN, (Div.Arty.Avn. '51) of Box 3017, Little Rock, Ark., writes a great letter that goes like this:

"Unfortunately, I have no pictures nor anecdotes of general interest to send you. Actually, I was with the Division for only about six months during the summer and fall of 1951. However, I would hope that at the least a roster of the Officer's and Men of the Division and Division Artillery Aviation sections, along with any pictures you may receive that cover the Korean War period would be published.

"I really am interested in the association and hope to be attending the annual meetings in the future. I am looking forward to meeting you and others that I read about in your news letter.

"A bit of personal history: I retired after 20 years service in 1959, returned to school and obtained my Ph.D. in economics and business administration in 1967. Am currently Professor and Senior Research Specialist with the University of Arkansas, Married (Bonnie), 2 daughters, Maralynn and Laura, 1 grandchild, Jason."

Thanks Frank; you covered the waterfront. Go easy on that request for rosters. Ain't got. If we did, we'd have a membership of 100,000. Terrible shame.

JIM and Katie BELL, (21st), of 1629 Ridge, E.St.Louis, Ill., have celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary.

LEE and Cecilia LIST, (B 21st '41-'44), of 115 Ronald, E.Peoria, Ill, went travelling this fall, as any fool can figure out by this snap.

Meet GRANT WILSON, (E 19 '40-'43), of 11 Washington, Parlin, N.J., taken at S II last summer. One shows him alone, and one shows him with Maj.Gen.AUBREY S. NEWMAN.

Nicely postcarded were we by CHARLEY TARRANTS, (A 34th '40-'43), of Box 1509, Montgomery, Ala. Charley was back in Savannah on business and reimbursed us.

We tried - in vain - to get an issue out in time to reach you before Christmas, ergo a chance to wish you and yours the compliments of the Season. Alas, it was not to be - for which our regrets - and apologies.

Nice report in from "Chick" JACK FINAN ('35-'42) and covering the waterfront from aardvark to zucchini, as only Jack can do. He writes, in his grand style: "The lazy, hazy, daisy days of fall are with us or they are waiting for the cool weather to hit Tar Heel Land.... Went down Texas way to San Antonio to attend the 36th Division Convention. Was on the road for 12 days and ole man weather was on our side. I couldn't get excited about the New Orleans sights and solos. I would sooner see several baseball games in the Houston Astrodome. Nice place for a division review....Attached check for annual dues and ten for the history. I know I'm late so put me on KP or Guard Duty at the next pow-wow... Thanks for another fine job with the Taro Leaf. You deserve a special place in 24th Infantry Division Heaven. (Ed. note: "Thanx Jack")....Several weeks ago was in Greenville, N.C. Had lunch with Raymond Webb, Thad Lilly & Roland Smith.....It is a small world: On the road to Savannah, we made a rest stop in South Carolina. As we pulled into the parking lot out of the mist came BILL SANDERSON, COFEE KAWA, JUNIOR HARRIS and their ladies. Just nothing like a Taro Leaf chat on the highways of S.C.... How about giving CHARLIE LANG a little plug in your next Taro Leaf. I discovered him and JOE CENGA encouraged him to make the trip to Georgia from California.... Enjoyed the item about JUNIOR HARRIS/ SPIKE O'DONNELL in their foxhole. Looks like Spike failed to make expert since he shot the Nip in the leg.....Had a great visit with JOHN/Grace TEN EYCK on our way to New Orleans. Ike and Pineapple Jack served with the 2nd Infantry at Fort Wayne, Mich., prior to our '39-'42 tour in Wahoo. When it comes to feeding guests a shrimp dinner, our Laurel, Mississippi, friends are at the top of the list.....Without any advance notice RICHARD (Mighty Mite) DIMOND walked into the Ramada Inn. Last time we saw or heard from him was during the '74 Pow-Wow in Clearwater Beach. Some guys will not fight but Dick will not write. I can't understand how he made Sergeant in "F" Co., when General "Red" NEWMAN was CO..... From Savannah heading north on I-95 we noticed BOB CHURCH's camper ahead of us. I pulled up close and blasted him with our noisy horn. He quickly stuck his head out the window while we gave him a wave of the hand and took off for Raleigh. He was going to Greenville, N.C., to spend a night with the RAYMOND WEBB's before heading for Michigan. Raymond was a JOCK CLIFFORD football star in the Schofield Army.....While in Savannah our good friends JOE/ETHEL BLASCHE were excited about the expected twins. Then, we get a letter about the triplets born in Macon. During our Fla.

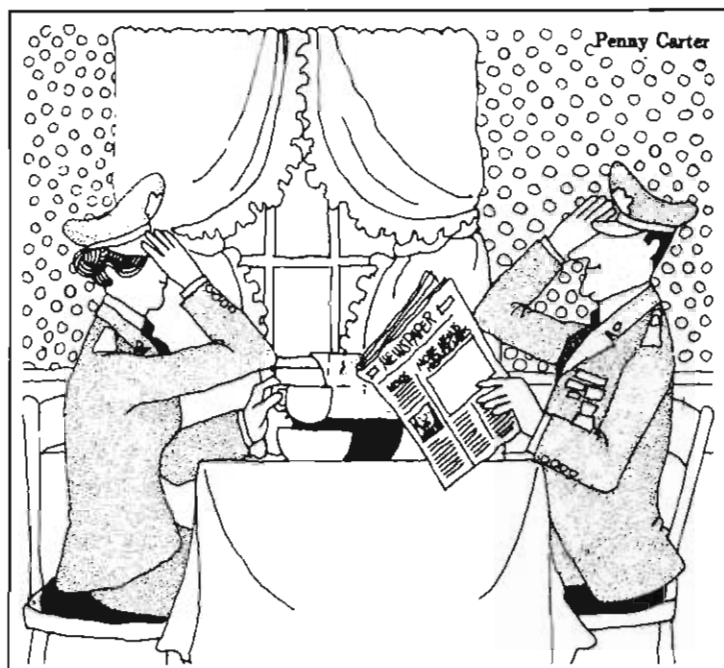

trip in February we spent a nite with the Blasche's in Butler, Ga. Joe hails from Monaca, Pa., while Ethel is a Georgia Lassie.....As SII not a single beard. I had a beard for 4 weeks until the Wolfpack of NC State University got jelled by Maryland. Then, last week the Big Red went to Chapel Hill and crushed the Tar Heels....Too bad about the Red Sox losing to the Yankees. I'm not a Yankee or Dodger fan but I did lose 2 bucks to Mary on the World Series. She has been a Yankee fan for 36 years."

We told ya this guy could write books when it comes to showing his love for the 24th.

He sent these, taken at S II, and showing JACK ANDERSON, ALTON HALSO, FRANK KAWA and himself in one, and "Coffee" Kawa and his wonderful better half. Marv. in t'other.

Barbara Walters, with a cool comfortable $1 million deal with ABC-TV, has the unmitigated gall to complain about checkbook journalism by former public servants such as Ford and Kissinger, each with a $1 million (or more!!) multi-year contract with NBC-TV. What's okay for the interviewer is not so okay for the interviewee, says Bawa. Talk should be so cheap. We suggest that Bawa keep quiet and let us peasants complain about the whole 3 of them and the 2 networks for having the nerve to pay out such sums.

Much ado about nothing is our reaction to the commotion created by the marriage of Capt. Michael and S/Sgt. Sue-Anne Jalinsky at Devens. So it happens - once in a million times??? so what? At a time when DA's bigger problem is to entice quality people to come in and stay in, the rehash of the fraternization policy seems moot.

The original Kodachrome is beautiful. We only hope this black and white copy will do it justice. It's ARNOLD HAMPEL, he's the more mature of the two, and one of his nine grandchildren. Arnie was A34th on Leyte, Luzon, Corregidor, Mindoro, Mindanao. Now resides at 1200 Highway 18, Clear Lake, Iowa. Writes Arnie: "Had one wife and 2 kids when I went into the service - 42 years ago. Same wife. Gosh, she's getting old. Better trade this year."

In October, ED HENRY and a colleague took a 3-day cruise along the Erie Canal, Albany to Syracuse, and reports same as having been a wonderful, slow, calm, away-from-it-all vacation. Readers wanting information about 1979 cruises between Buffalo and Syracuse and/or between Albany and Syracuse can write Mid-Lakes Navigation Co., Box 61, Skaneateles, N.Y. They'll run between June and October. Wonderful experience, and positively exciting when you reflect upon what our fathers engineered over 150 years ago. Try it; you'll love it." "It's utterly different - and fascinating", says Ed, to whom we say "Thanks for the report".

BILL SHOWN, (21st '41-'44), of 1911 Francis, Waukesha, Wis., sends us this clipping which made the wire service. He was with the security police at Amron Corp., a defense contractor in Waukesha when it happened. Under a banner headline reading: POLICE SURPRISED, TOO, IN THIS CHICAGO AMBUSH, the item read:

"Chicago, Ill. - Eight policemen with their guns drawn were waiting Wednesday when a black Lincoln sedan drove into the 87th St. toll plaza of the Chicago Skyway.

"By the time the two men riding in the Lincoln stepped out, more than 10 policemen were waiting for them. Fifteen squad cars with their blue lights flashing blocked all gates at the plaza.

"The ambush was set up after one officer saw the car following a truck south on the Dan Ryan expressway. He radioed for help and said the men were wearing black leather jackets and caps and looked suspicious (we were actually wearing coveralls).

"The 'suspicious' occupants of the car, who both were carrying .38 caliber revolvers, turned out to be plant guards at a Waukesha ordnance manufacturing plant.

"They identified themselves as Raymond Smallish, 1241 S.36th St., Milwaukee, and WILLIAM SHOWN, of Waukesha, employees of the Amron Corp.

"Smallish and Shown said they were on an escort mission, guarding 16 barrels of unidentified material being trucked from Waukesha to the Inland Steel Co. plant at Gary, Ind.

"They said information on the cargo was classified and that it was used by Inland Steel in a defense project under contract with the 5th Army.

BOB HARDIN, (5th RCT '50-'51), recovering nicely from surgery. Bob and Alice are at 27000 SW 142 Ave., Naranja, Fla.

GENE MADDEN, (34th '43-'45), of 2901 N.14th, Dodge City, Kans. asks where he can buy a copy of "Children of Yesterday". We don't know. This we do know; we're including all of it in our forthcoming History, so great has been the demand. Gene is in the book, by the way. Gene tells us that Phyllis Diller once worked as a society columnist for the San Leandro (Cal.) News Observer. One household hint she gave out was: "The best way to get ants out of the kitchen is to spread honey on the living room floor". Gene adds that "She didn't last too long in that job."

Col. DICK LAWSON, following SII started a hunt for JOHNNY CLARKE, the Div.Chem.O in New Guinea. A letter written in August finally found Johnny about Nov. 1st. Johnny's wife died 2 years ago and he took off into the Canadian Rockies on a camping-fishing-painting trip. It took a Canadian Mountie 6 weeks to find him and deliver Dick's letter to him. Remember how Nelson Eddy used to say he always got his man? Or was it Jeanette McDonald? Johnny will be writing Dick again when he climbs back down off those hills.

JERRY VON MOHR is one of the reasons editing this poop sheet is the fun that it is. He clipped a classified ad out of his local paper. Under "Job opportunities", it went

BARMAID

We need honest, sober and reliable help. Would settle for any 2 of the 3 above. Call 274-0345 after 10:30 a.m.

Jerry pens to it a notation - "I know how fond you are of the kookie want ads. Thought you'd enjoy this one from the 8-8-78 Dayton Journal-Herald". Jerry, we loved it.

LEE LIST spotted the item in our last issue about GEORGE RUTLEDGE selling the 24th pins. George only lives 30 miles from Peoria so Lee drove over and picked them up. Sez "They're nice". Lee adds a story which delivers a good message, "Be an optimist". Seems a father had 2 sons, one an incurable pessimist, the other a natural-born optimist. Come Xmas, the old man decided to give them a test. He gave the pessimist an expensive gold watch. He gave the optimist a box of what might be called "fertilizer". When the boys opened their presents, the pessimist said, "See, I've got a watch, but I don't like the band". The optimist said, "Gee, I've got a pony, but I haven't found it yet." Urges Lee, "Be an optimist".

Isn't he something? Asked our Chaplain for a few pearls for a "Chaplain's Corner" in this issue. Replied that he was embarrassed by the spread we gave him in the last issue and that "it might be prudent for me to maintain a low profile for a bit". No, get out of that foxhole, Father; we love you.

THE PRESIDENT'S CORNER

August is an important time of the year because of our togetherness during that special time. Lexington must match all previous years if I'm to prove myself worthy of the high honor you have bestowed upon me.

I humbly ask all members to help to make this a memorable year. ROSCOE CLAXON has proven to be an excellent chairman. Within a few days he had contacted all of the Lexington convention sites and we were on our way. We are working to please you and yours. Low rates and a prime location. We can't lose.

The Hilton Inn. It's tops! Join us in Lexington on August 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th.

Sincerely,

Mike

The 42nd Division Assoc. publishes "Rainbow", a paper much like ours in size, content and frequency. As we were going to press, one of their issues came our way - editors exchange copies, you see. The following article moved us as we trust it will move you if only in reviewing once more the pure statistics of "the thing". We don't believe that we can be reminded too often of "the Holocaust" and all that it stands for:

Dachau Revisited

Father Charles Erb, SVD

As one of the chaplains of the 42nd Rainbow Division, which liberated Dachau, I entered the infamous concentration camp the afternoon of the last day of April, 1945.

We found almost 32,000 prisoners in the camp, 1100 of them Catholic priests. Fifteen members of my own Order, Divine Word Missionaries, soon identified themselves, priests and Brothers. You can imagine the excitement.

The final, official count of clergymen in Dachau was 2720 - 2529 Catholics, 134 Lutherans and 57 of other denominations. 1034 clergymen and religious lost their lives there. 568 of them were with the 3166 people transported to the gas chamber at Martheim-Mauthausen near Linz in Austria. I took two of my own brethren out of Dachau in my chaplain's jeep, a classmate ordained with me in 1933 in Vienna, Austria, and another Polish priest, now 88 and active in a SVD seminary in northern Poland.

Dachau was the first concentration camp to be set up by Himmler, in 1933, soon after Hitler came to power. The buildings of a former munitions plant were used temporarily to accommodate 5,000. The Nazis planned to "rehabilitate" dissident Germans: Communists, intellectuals, clergymen and other citizens who objected to Hitler and his party. The first ecclesiastic to be imprisoned there was a Catholic theologian, Wilhelm Brandy, December 11, 1935. Block 15 - 17 was reserved for clerics in the beginning. Later Polish nationals and others were assigned to Blocks 26 and 28.

On July 20, 1933, a Concordat was signed by the Hitler regime with the Vatican. But trouble began almost immediately. Cardinal Faulhaber, Bishop von Galen and other prelates protested the repeated breaches of the agreement, but it must be admitted, the intellectual and spiritual leadership on the whole left much to be desired. Pope Pius XI finally issued (1937) a stinging rebuke to Hitler through his encyclical, "Mit Brennender Sorge" (With Burning Anxiety, and it came out in German), which forthrightly condemned the entire Nazi philosophy of race and Aryan Superiority.

Later, when Hitler visited Mussolini, Pius XI refused to remain in Rome and retired to his summer residence outside the City until Hitler returned to Germany. Later, Pope Pius XII could only pick up the pieces and try to save through diplomacy as many people as he could.

Hitler wished to reorganize, it seems, the Lutheran Church and make it the State religion. When Pastor Niemöller, with his manifesto, "Bekennende Kirche" protested, the courageous clergyman was arrested and ended up with the "elite" prisoners in Dachau.

In my opinion, the TV film "Holocaust" is not an exaggerated report. Beside the seven or eight big and notorious concentration camps, there were a hundred other affiliate camps where prisoners were kept to provide slave labor for nearby industrial and munitions plants (especially during the last two years of the war). In Dachau alone, over 30,000 prisoners died from exhaustion, ill-treatment, exposure, typhoid or typhus. Others (soldiers included) were shot, hanged or beaten to death. Still others were used in guinea pig experiments, subjected to malaria infection or heat and freezing tests. The picture of the Hitler mass-murder has to include the casualties of war suffered by the Führer's own people and the world's massive war machine required to bring him down.

I only regret that a better ending was not given the TV production. In order to prevent a further promotion of hatred, viewers might have been briefly reminded in some way that West Germany has made a pretty good effort to express her shame and sorrow for the great Hitler madness by: reimbursing Jewish and other survivors in their homelands; aiding Israel and helping those who wished to emigrate to that State; and taking immediate measures to repress Neo-Nazi flare-ups where - and whenever they appeared. Also, education policy now requires that teachers discuss the Hitler tragedy in the schoolroom and not advise the young people to "read that chapter at home," as some teachers told me they used to do.

As I drove from Munich to Dachau last November with some of my mass media colleagues, I was agreeably surprised to note signs along the highway, "To the Dachau Concentration Camp." And when I reached the camp, it was comforting to find it a sacred shrine.

The prison blocks are gone, replaced by cement benches, row on row, where visitors (and they come from all over Europe by the hundreds), may sit and reflect on "man's cruelty to man," and the awful injustices that still are perpetrated in too many places throughout the world.

The huge assembly lot faces three shrines: A Catholic sanctuary and a Protestant chapel; the Jews have a monument commemorating the awful holocaust, the slaughter of their people in Europe, an estimated 6,000,000.

The Catholic chapel stands in the middle, facing the cement benches. The stones of the chapel were taken from the grounds where the Hitler victims walked up and down for exercise. A large Crown of Thorns is spread out over the chapel to symbolize the agonies the prisoners endured.

Carmelite nuns have a large convent nearby. Two dozen contemplative sisters pray in their private chapel day and night for conversion, penitence and forgiveness. Their chapel stands right on the spot where one of those watch-towers stood, with a soldier on constant guard, machinegun at the ready and an alarm button within easy reach.

The nuns eat no meat, but they are provided fish from the ponds they maintain for their sustenance. In accord with their rule, Carmelites in Dachau are engaged in making sacred vestments, icons, rosaries and altar cloths along with their own simple clothing. Together with their housework, they look after their garden, plant fruit and vegetables. Three bells (one of them used to announce the executions at Stadelheim) ring out at 3 p.m. every day for prayers for the dying, and again at 6 p.m. for the Angelus and special prayers for all the faithful departed.

The day I was there last November was a wickedly wintry one. I shivered with the cold and with the remembrance of those 200,000 victims of Nazi tyranny and what they suffered in that place before they went to the "Brausebad" (translate not shower room but gas chamber) or to the oven (they are still to be seen), or to the wall for their execution or self-destruction by hanging or jumping into the electric barbed-wire surrounding the camp.

My kingdom
for a horse!"*

— RICHARD III, V, 4

Whether or not you are a horse person you appreciate the glory of the horse when you are in Lexington. It is all around you. (Conjecture — could man have survived without the dog and the horse?)

Horse people are very nice. They are warm, friendly, outgoing. You'll meet a lot of them at the Lexington Hilton Inn. You can talk with them or learn from them about flats (thoroughbreds) and harness (standards) and saddlers and hackneys and other breeds. And — they'll assure you the Hilton Inn's services are superlative all year-round.

Owners, trainers, riders, dealers, horse people... everyone knows that our Inn is the place.
